

Supreme Court of Florida

No. AOSC17-31

IN RE: MEDIATOR QUALIFICATIONS AND DISCIPLINE REVIEW BOARD

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

The Mediator Qualifications and Discipline Review Board (hereinafter “Board”) is responsible for accepting grievances against certified and court-appointed mediators; determining good moral character for applicants and currently certified mediators; determining probable cause with regard to grievances filed against certified and court-appointed mediators, and applicants for certification; conducting hearings regarding certified and court-appointed mediators, and applicants for certification; and disciplining certified and court-appointed mediators, and applicants for certification.

The members of the Board serve four-year, staggered terms. The Board is authorized to have up to 84 members. The Board was recently reconfigured from three to four divisions: Northern, Central, Southwest, and Southeast. The composition of the revised Board requires new member appointments.

Therefore, in accordance with rule 10.730, Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators, the following individuals are hereby appointed to an initial term that expires on November 30, 2019.
