

Supreme Court of Florida

No. AOSC17-36

IN RE: COMMITTEE ON ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION
RULES AND POLICY

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Chapter 44, Florida Statutes, requires the Supreme Court of Florida to establish rules of practice and procedure for court-ordered mediation and court-ordered arbitration. To assist the supreme court in exercising its powers and performing its duties under the statute, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy was established in 2003 by merging two committees¹ in In re: Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy, No. AOSC03-32 (Fla. July 8, 2003).

Members of the Committee are appointed to staggered, three-year terms, and no member shall serve more than nine years. Accordingly, the following members are reappointed to serve three-year terms that expire on June 30, 2020:

1. The two previously-established court committees were the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and the Committee on Dispute Resolution Policy.

Oscar Franco
Family, circuit and county certified mediator, non-lawyer
Weston, Florida

Linda Fieldstone, MSW
Family certified mediator and qualified parenting coordinator, non-lawyer

Eric Dunlap
Appellate, circuit, and county certified mediator, lawyer, primary mediation and arbitration trainer
Altamonte Springs, Florida

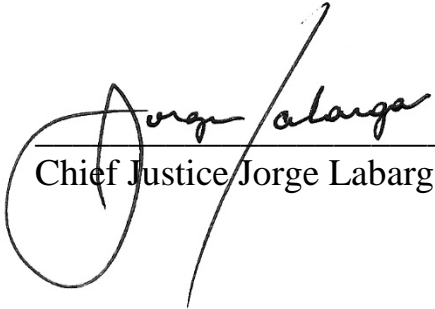

Jake Schickel
Circuit certified mediator, lawyer
Jacksonville, Florida

Additionally, Arve Wikstrom has resigned from the Committee. The following person is appointed to serve the remainder of Mr. Wikstrom's term, which expires on June 30, 2018:

Susan Dubow
Circuit, county, and appellate certified mediator, non-lawyer, primary mediation trainer
Boca Raton, Florida

The Honorable Rodney Smith shall continue to serve as chair until June 30, 2018.

DONE AND ORDERED at Tallahassee, Florida, on June 29, 2017.

Chief Justice Jorge Labarga
