THE FLORIDA BAR

vs. ALAN MARTIN MEDOF

Complainant(s)

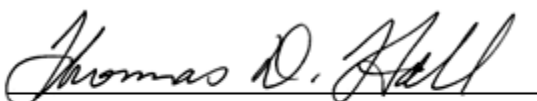

Respondent(s)

On Wednesday, January 26, 2011, this Court held Respondent Alan Martin Medof in contempt of court for his failure to fully respond in writing to the official Bar inquiries. Based on this misconduct, the Court suspended him from the practice of law until he fully responded in writing to the official Bar inquiries and until further order of this Court. On February 14, 2011, this Court received a "Notice Regarding Respondent's Written Response to Official Inquiries" from The Florida Bar, notifying this Court that Medof has now fully responded in writing to the official Bar inquiries. Having complied with the official Bar inquiries, Respondent is no longer suspended in Case No. SC10-2165 and is reinstated to the practice of law, effective immediately.
