

Supreme Court of Florida

No. SC08-92

IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO FLORIDA FAMILY LAW RULES.

[October 16, 2008]

PER CURIAM.

We have for consideration the regular-cycle report of proposed rule amendments filed by the Florida Bar's Family Law Rules Committee. We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const.

BACKGROUND

The Family Law Rules Committee submitted its regular-cycle report recommending various amendments to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure and family law forms. The committee proposed amendments to rules 12.015, Family Law Forms; 12.040, Attorneys; 12.310, Depositions Upon Oral Examination; 12.400, Confidentiality of Records and Proceedings; 12.410, Subpoena; 12.490, General Magistrates; 12.610, Injunctions for Domestic, Repeat, Dating, and Sexual Violence; 12.650, Override of Family Violence Indicator; and 12.750, Family Self-Help Programs. The committee also proposes new forms 12.900(g), Agreement Limiting Representation, and 12.900(h), Notice of Related Cases, as well as amendments to forms 12.930(c), Standard Family Law Interrogatories for Modification Proceedings, 12.982(c), Petition for Change of Name (Minor Children), and 12.982(f), Petition for Change of Name (Family). The proposals were published for comment in The Florida Bar News on March 1, 2008. The Florida Department of Revenue filed a comment with regard to the proposed amendment to rule 12.040 and proposed new form 12.900(h) and a request for oral argument. Oral argument was heard in this matter on June 10, 2008.

AMENDMENTS

After consideration of the committee's report, the comments filed, and the parties' presentations at oral argument, we adopt the amendments to the Florida Family Law Rules as proposed by the committee with one exception. In 2003, the Court adopted Florida Family Law Rule 12.040, Attorneys, in Amendments to the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar & the Family Law Rules of Procedure (Unbundled Legal Services), 860 So. 2d 394 (Fla. 2003). The main purpose of rule 12.040 is to provide the appropriate procedure to allow a litigant in a family law case to retain an attorney for limited representation. The rule requires an attorney who is providing such representation to file a notice of limited appearance, the purpose of which is to provide notice to the court and to opposing parties of the limited scope of the attorney's representation of the litigant. After adopting the rule, the Court requested that the committee clarify whether the rule applied to attorneys for the Department of Revenue. In its report in this case, the committee responded that it intended that the rule apply to attorneys for the Department when the Department is involved in Title IV-D proceedings to determine paternity or establish, enforce, or modify an obligation of support or whenever the Department intervenes in a non-IV-D proceeding. In addition, the committee proposed adding new subdivision (c)(2) to the rule to provide:

(2) An attorney for the IV-D child support enforcement agency who appears in a family law matter governed by these rules, whether in an initial proceeding or in any subsequent modification or enforcement action in the proceeding, shall file a notice [of limited appearance] in compliance with subdivisions (c)(1) and (e) which shall also state: whether the recipient of IV-D services is a party to the case; any limits on the legal services being performed for the recipient of IV-D services; any limits on the issues that may be addressed by the attorney during the proceeding.

The Department of Revenue filed a comment objecting to this proposed amendment. While the Department does not object to the committee's determination that rule 12.040 applies to its attorneys under the stated circumstances, the Department's position is that the attorney represents only the IV-D agency and not the recipient of the IV-D services and thus, the notice of limited representation filed by the attorney should clarify the attorney's representation of the IV-D agency only and the limited issues the attorney is authorized to address in representing the IV-D agency as a party in the proceeding. In light of its position, the Department has proposed alternative language for new subdivision (c)(2) as follows:

An attorney for the State's Title IV-D child support enforcement agency who appears in a family law matter governed by these rules shall file a notice informing the recipient of Title IV-D services and other parties to the case that the IV-D attorney represents only the Title IV-D agency and not the recipient of IV-D services. The notice must state that the IV-D attorney may only address issues concerning determination of paternity, and establishment, modification, and enforcement of support obligations. The notice may be incorporated into a pleading, motion, or other paper filed with the court when the attorney first appears.

We adopt this alternative language as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

As noted, other amendments to the Family Law Rules are adopted as proposed by the committee. A committee note is added to rules 12.310, Depositions Upon Oral Examination, and 12.410, Subpoena, to draw attention to the requirements of rule 12.407, Testimony and Attendance of Minor Child, which requires court approval before a child is deposed or is subpoenaed to appear at a hearing. Subdivision (f) of rule 12.490, General Magistrates, is amended to clarify that exceptions to a general magistrate’s report should be “filed” within 10 days of service of the report. Similarly, subdivision (g) of rule 12.492, Special Magistrates, is amended to clarify that exceptions to a special magistrate’s report must be “filed” within ten days of service of the report, and that cross-exceptions be filed within five days of the “filing” of the exceptions.

Along with the rule amendments discussed above, two new forms are adopted, forms 12.900(g), Agreement Limiting Representation, and 12.900(h), Notice of Related Cases. Form 12.900(g) is a retainer agreement for unbundled legal services and is intended to be used as a “rider” or supplemental agreement, in addition to a standard attorney-client fee agreement. New form 12.900(h) is for use in complying with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.545(d), which requires the petitioner in a family law case to file with the court a notice of related cases.¹

Several existing forms are also amended. Item 4.d.(4) of form 12.903(c), Standard Family Law Interrogatories for Modification Proceedings, is amended to

1. Rule 12.015, Family Law Forms, contains a list of Family Law Rules of Procedure Forms. This rule is amended to add the two new forms adopted in this case, form 12.900(g), Agreement Limiting Representation, and 12.900(h), Notice of Related Cases, and to add form 12.913(c), Affidavit of Diligent Search, which was previously adopted by the Court in In re Amendments to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure, 962 So. 2d 302 (Fla. 2007).

request the “present” value of the party’s interest in a pension. The instructions to and the introductory portion of form 12.982(c), Petition for Change of Name (Minor Children), are amended to require that the petitioner’s, not the child’s, fingerprints be attached to the petition. Similarly, the instructions to and the introductory portion of form 12.982(f), Petition for Change of Name (Family), are amended to require that each adult family member’s fingerprints be attached to the petition.²

CONCLUSION

The Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure are hereby amended as set forth in the appendix to this opinion. New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The committee notes are offered for explanation only and are not adopted as an official part of the rules. The amended family law forms are set forth fully engrossed and ready for use. The amendments shall become effective January 1, 2009, at 12:01 a.m.

It is so ordered.

QUINCE, C.J., and WELLS, ANSTEAD, PARIENTE, and LEWIS, JJ., concur.
QUINCE, C.J., specially concurs with an opinion.
CANADY and POLSTON, JJ., did not participate.

2. Minor editorial amendments are also made to a number of rules, including amendments to correct references to the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, which have been renumbered.

THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE AMENDMENTS.

QUINCE, C.J., specially concurring.

While I agree with the majority concerning the adoption of the changes to the rules and the forms, I write to urge the Legislature to clear up the ambiguity in section 68.07, Florida Statutes (2007), concerning petitions for change of name. Subsection (2) of the statute requires a set of the petitioner's fingerprints. In the case of a change of name for a minor child, the petitioner is one or both of the child's parents. Thus, the statute is being interpreted to require a set of the fingerprints of the parent or parents.

However, it seems that the intent of the statute is to require the fingerprints of the person whose name will be changed. Such intent is understandable because it is a way to track and identify in the future the person who has changed her or his name. However, if the fingerprints of the parents are given in a petition to change the name of a minor child, the intent is undermined because one would not be able to track and identify the person whose name was actually changed. Thus, I believe the statute should clearly indicate that the child's fingerprints must be attached to the petition when the change of name is sought for a child.

Commentary

2000 Adoption. To help the many people in family law court cases who do not have attorneys to represent them (pro se litigants), the Florida Supreme Court added simplified forms and directions to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure when adopting the rules in 1995. These forms initially had been adopted by the Court in In re Family Law Rules of Procedure, 663 So. 2d 1049 (Fla. 1995); In re Petition for Approval of Forms Pursuant to Rule 10-1.1(b) of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar—Stepparent Adoption Forms, 613 So. 2d 900 (Fla. 1992), and Rules Regulating The Florida Bar—Approval of Forms, 581 So. 2d 902 (Fla. 1991).

In 1997, in an effort to fulfill the spirit of the Court’s directives to simplify the process of litigation in family law matters, the Family Court Steering Committee completely revised the existing forms and added new forms and instructions. The rules and forms then constituted more than 500 pages.

This rule was adopted in recognition that the forms would require continuous updating and that the rulemaking process was too cumbersome for such an undertaking.

RULE 12.040. ATTORNEYS

(a) – (b) [No Change]

(c) Scope of Representation.

(1) If an attorney appears of record for a particular limited proceeding or matter, as provided by this rule, that attorney shall be deemed “of record” for only that particular proceeding or matter. (2) An attorney for the State’s Title IV-D child support enforcement agency who appears in a family law matter governed by these rules shall file a notice informing the recipient of Title IV-D services and other parties to the case that the IV-D attorney represents only the Title IV-D agency and not the recipient of IV-D services. The notice must state that the IV-D attorney may only address issues concerning determination of paternity, and establishment, modification, and enforcement of support obligations. The notice may be incorporated into a pleading, motion, or other paper filed with the court when the attorney first appears.

(d) Preparation of Pleadings or Other Documents. INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA FAMILY LAW RULES OF PROCEDURE FORM 12.930(c), STANDARD FAMILY LAW INTERROGATORIES FOR MODIFICATION PROCEEDINGS (01/09)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used to ask the other party in your case to answer certain standard questions in writing. These questions are called interrogatories, and they must relate to your case. If the other party fails to answer the questions, you may ask the judge to order the other party to answer the questions. (You cannot ask these questions before the petition has been filed.)

The questions in this form should be used in modification proceedings and are meant to supplement the information provided in the Financial Affidavits, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.902(b) or (c). You should read all of the questions in this form to determine which questions, if any, the other party needs to answer in order to provide you with information not covered in the financial affidavit forms. If there are questions to which you already know the answer, you may choose not to ask them.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. You must complete the box at the beginning of this form to indicate which questions you are requesting that the other party answer. You should send two copies of this form and the Notice of Service of Standard Family Law Interrogatories, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.930(a), to the other party. You should also keep a copy for your records. You do not need to file this form with the clerk of the circuit court. However, you must file the Notice of Service of Standard Family Law Interrogatories, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.930(a), to tell the court that you have sent this form to the other party.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read “General Information for Self-Represented Litigants” found at the beginning of these forms. For further information, see the instructions for Notice of Service of Standard Family Law Interrogatories, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.930(a), rules 12.280, 12.285, 12.340, and 12.380, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure and rules 1.280, 1.340, and 1.380, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

Special notes...

In addition to the standard questions in this form, you may ask up to 10 additional questions. You should type or print your additional questions on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form. If you want to ask more than 10 additional questions, you will need to get permission from the judge.

You may want to inform the other party of the following information: As a general rule, within 30 days after service of interrogatories, the other party must answer the questions in writing and mail (have postmarked) the answers to you. His or her answers shall be written in the blank space provided after each separately numbered interrogatory. If sufficient space is not provided, the answering party may attach additional papers with the answers and refer to them in the space provided in the interrogatories. He or she should be sure to make a copy for him/herself. All answers to these questions are made under oath or affirmation as to their truthfulness. Each question must be answered separately and as completely as the available information permits. The original of the answers to the interrogatories is to be provided to the requesting party. Do not file the original or a copy with the clerk of the circuit court except as provided by Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.340(e). The other party may object to a question by writing the legal reason for the objection in the space provided. He or she may also ask the court for a protective order granting him or her permission not to answer certain questions and protecting him or her from annoyance, embarrassment, apprehension, or undue burden or expense. If the other party fails to either answer or object to the questions within 30 days, he or she may be subject to court sanctions.

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW FORM 12.982(c), PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME (MINOR CHILD(REN)) (01/09)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used when parents want the court to change the name of their minor child(ren). For the purposes of this proceeding, a person under the age of 18 is a minor. This form is not to be used in connection with an adoption or paternity action. If you want a change of name for your child(ren) because of an adoption or paternity action that is not yet final, the change of name should be done as part of that case.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. The primary petition should only be completed for one child. If you wish to change the names of more than one child, you should complete and file a Supplemental Form for Petition for Change of Name (Minor Child) for each child. The supplemental form is an attachment to the petition. Be sure that the bottom of each page of each supplemental form is initialed by the petitioner(s). You must obtain a copy of the petitioner(s)'s fingerprints taken by a law enforcement agency and attach it to the petition. There may be a charge for the fingerprinting which you will have to pay. After completing this form, you should sign the form before a notary public or deputy clerk. You should file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where you live and keep a copy for your records.

What should I do next?

If both parents agree to the change of name and live in the county where the change of name is sought, you may both file as petitioners. In this situation, service is not necessary, and you need only to set a hearing. You should ask the clerk of court, family law intake staff, or judicial assistant about the local procedure for setting a hearing.

If only one parent is a resident of the county where the change of name(s) is sought or only one parent asks for the child(ren)'s name(s) to be changed, the other parent must be notified and his or her consent obtained, if possible. If the other parent consents to the change of name, a Consent for Change of Name (Minor Child(ren)), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.982(d), should be filed.

If the other parent does not consent to the change of name, you may still have a hearing on the petition if you have properly notified the other parent about your petition and the hearing. If you know where he or she lives, you must use personal service. If you absolutely do not know where he or she lives, you may use constructive service. For more information about personal and constructive service, you should refer [to] the “General Instructions for Self-Represented Litigants” found at the beginning of these forms and the instructions to Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Forms 12.910(a) and 12.913(b) and Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.913(a). However, the law regarding constructive service is very complex and you may wish to consult an attorney regarding that issue.

Next, you must obtain a final hearing date for the court to consider your request. You should ask the clerk of court, family law intake staff, or judicial assistant about the local procedure for setting a hearing. You may be required to attend the hearing. Included in these forms is a Final Judgment of Change of Name (Minor Child(ren)), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.982(e), which may be used when a judge grants a change of name for a minor child(ren). If you attend the hearing, you should take the final judgment with you. You should complete the top part of the form, including the circuit, county, case number, division, and the name(s) of the petitioner(s) and leave the rest blank for the judge to complete. It should be typed or printed in black ink.

If the judge grants your petition, he or she will sign this order. This officially changes your child(ren)’s name(s). The clerk can provide you with certified copies of the signed order. There will be charges for the certified copies, and the clerk can tell you how much those charges are.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read “General Information for Self-Represented Litigants” found at the beginning of these forms. For further information, see section 68.07, Florida Statutes.

Special notes...

The heading of the form calls for the name(s) of the petitioner(s). This is the parent(s) who is (are) requesting the change of their child(ren)’s name(s). The judicial circuit, case number, and division may be obtained from the clerk of court’s office when you file the petition.

It may be helpful to compile a list of all of the people and places that will need a copy of the final judgment. This list may include the driver’s license office, social security office, banks, schools, etc. A list will help you know how many copies of your order you should get from the clerk of court after your hearing.

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of a Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW FORM 12.982(f), PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME (FAMILY) (01/09)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used when a family wants the court to change its name. This form is not to be used in connection with a divorce, paternity, or adoption action. If you want a change of name because of a dissolution of marriage, paternity, or adoption action that is not yet final, the change of name should be done as part of that case.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. The petition should only be completed for one adult. If you wish to change the name(s) of another adult and/or child(ren), you should complete and file a Supplemental Form for Petition for Change of Name (Family) for each additional family member and file the supplemental form(s) as an attachment to the petition. Be sure that the bottom of each child's supplemental form is initialed. A copy of the fingerprints of each adult family member who is petitioning to have his or her name changed, taken by a law enforcement agency, must be attached to the petition. There may be a charge for the fingerprinting which you will have to pay. After completing this form, it should be signed before a notary public or deputy clerk. You should then file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where you live and keep a copy for your records.

What should I do next?

If any of the children for whom you are requesting this change of name are not the legal children of both adults filing this petition, you must obtain the consent of the legal parent(s). A parent not named as a petitioner in this action may consent by submitting a Consent for Change of Name (Minor Child(ren)), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.982(d).

If the other parent does not consent to the change of name, you may still have a hearing on the petition if you have properly notified the other parent about your petition and the hearing. If you know where he or she lives, you must use personal service. If you absolutely do not know where he or she lives, you may use constructive service. For more information about personal and constructive service, you should refer to the "General Instructions for Self-Represented Litigants" found at the beginning of these forms and the instructions to Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Forms 12.910(a) and 12.913(b) and Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.913(a). The law on constructive service is very complex and you may wish to consult an attorney regarding constructive service.

Next, you must obtain a final hearing date for the court to consider your request. You should ask the clerk of court, family law intake staff, or judicial assistant about the local procedure for setting a hearing. You may be required to attend the hearing. Included in these forms is a Final Judgment of Change of Name (Family), Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.982(g), which may be used when a judge grants a change of name for a family. If you attend the hearing, you should take the final judgment form with you. You should complete the top part of this form, including the circuit, county, case number, division, the name(s) of the petitioner(s) and leave the rest blank for the judge to complete. It should be typed or printed in black ink.

If the judge grants your petition, he or she will sign this order. This officially changes your family's name. The clerk can provide you with certified copies of the signed order. There will be charges for the certified copies, and the clerk can tell you how much those charges are.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read "General Information for Self-Represented Litigants" found at the beginning of these forms. For further information, see section 68.07, Florida Statutes.

Special notes...

The heading of the form calls for the name(s) of the petitioner(s). This is (are) the parent(s) who are requesting the change of their family's name(s). The judicial circuit, case number, and division may be obtained from the clerk of court's office when you file the petition.

It may be helpful to compile a list of all of the people and places that will need a copy of the final judgment. This list may include the driver's license office, social security office, banks, schools, etc. A list will help you know how many copies of your order you should get from the clerk of court after your hearing.

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of a Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900(a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.
