

Supreme Court of Florida

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 2011

CASE NO.: SC11-612

Lower Tribunal No(s): 01-2008-CA-005581

FRANK C. JOHNSON

vs. THE BANK OF NEW YORK
MELLON TRUST COMPANY

Petitioner(s)

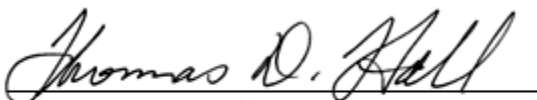

Respondent(s)

Petitioner has filed a letter, which the Court has treated as a petition for writ of prohibition. The petition is hereby dismissed. To the extent petitioner seeks a writ of prohibition or seeks to compel the district court clerk to accept his filings, the petition is dismissed because this Court generally will not consider the repetitive petitions of persons who have abused the judicial processes of the lower courts such that they have been barred from filing certain actions there. See Pettway v. State, 776 So. 2d 930, 931 (Fla. 2000). To the extent petitioner seeks to compel the circuit court clerk to accept his filings, the petition is dismissed without prejudice to petitioner to seek relief in the appropriate circuit court. Any other motions or requests for relief are hereby denied.
