

Supreme Court of Florida

No. AOSC19-25

IN RE: STEERING COMMITTEE ON FAMILIES AND CHILDREN IN THE COURT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

The purpose of the Steering Committee on Families and Children in the Court is to continue establishing a fully integrated, comprehensive approach to handling all cases involving children and families.

The Honorable Laurel Lee has been appointed as Secretary of State, thereby completing her service on the steering committee. The Honorable Jack Helinger, Circuit Judge, Sixth Judicial Circuit, is hereby appointed to complete the remainder of Secretary Lee's term on the steering committee, which expires on June 30, 2020.

Moreover, the chair has determined that in order to effectively carry out the charges to the steering committee it would be beneficial to expand the membership to include an additional judge. Therefore, The Honorable José A. Izquierdo, Circuit Judge, Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, is hereby appointed to the steering committee for a term that expires on June 30, 2020.

DONE AND ORDERED at Tallahassee, Florida, on May 28, 2019.
